There’s Still Room

A Table for Two | Week 3

Nate Marsh| November 15, 2026

1. _____ the Invitation.

Luke 14:15–17

Ephesians 2:8–9

We don't earn a place at God's table. We receive His invitation through faith.

2. _____ the Excuses.

Luke 14:18–20

Sometimes the greatest obstacle to following Jesus isn't opposition. It's distraction.

Luke 14:24

3. _____ the Uninvited.

Luke 14:21–23

We cannot expect people to respond to an invitation we're unwilling to extend.

The table isn't full. There's still room.

Questions for Further Study

1. Icebreaker / Team Building: What's the most creative excuse you've ever heard someone use to get out of an invitation?

2. Read Luke 14:15–17 and Ephesians 2:8–9. How does the prepared banquet in Jesus' parable illustrate the gift of salvation and God's grace toward us?

3. Read Luke 14:18–20. What are some “good things” in our lives that can become distractions from following Jesus?

4. Read Matthew 6:33 and Hebrews 12:1–2. The sermon reminds us, "Sometimes the greatest obstacle to following Jesus isn't opposition. It's distraction." How do these passages challenge us to examine our priorities?

5. Read Luke 14:21–23 and Matthew 28:19–20. How should God's willingness to welcome those who were overlooked influence the way we reach out to people who may feel unwelcome or unworthy?

6. Personal Reflection: The sermon challenged us to remember that "The table isn't full. There's still room." Who is one person you could intentionally pray for and invite to church this week? If you feel comfortable, ask your small group to pray for this person, too!
