

What's My Message

Mark 5:1–20; Luke 8:26–39

Made for Mission Part 3 of 6

Nate Marsh - November 2, 2025

Scene 1 – The _____.

Mark 5:1–2

Scene 2 – The _____.

Mark 5:3–5

Scene 3 – The _____.

Luke 8:28–30

Scene 4 – The _____.

Luke 8:31–33

Your freedom story whispers to others: you can be free too.

Scene 5 – The _____.

Luke 8:35

Scene 6 – The _____.

Luke 8:38–39

Weekly Application Step – Your Story Card

This week, take time to write out your story in three short sentences:

1. My life before Jesus was _____.
2. Jesus changed my life when _____.
3. Now my life is _____.

Put it somewhere you'll see it often and ask God for one opportunity this week to share it. Because your story matters, and someone's waiting to hear it.

Questions for Further Study

1. What does Jesus' crossing of the lake in Mark 5 teach us about stepping into uncomfortable places for the sake of the gospel?
2. How do the man's chains in this story mirror the hidden struggles people face today?
3. Why is Jesus' question, "What is your name?" so significant and what does it reveal about how He sees people?
4. Read Mark 5:1–2 and then compare it with John 4:4–26 (the Samaritan woman) and Luke 19:1–10 (Zacchaeus).

What patterns do you notice in how Jesus intentionally crosses cultural or social boundaries?

How might these examples challenge the way you approach people who seem "outside" your comfort zone?

5. Compare Luke 8:35 with 2 Corinthians 5:17 and Ephesians 2:1–10.

How do these Scriptures together describe what it means to be made new in Christ?