

The Mission
1 Corinthians 5:10-11
The Easter Challenge
Nate Marsh—April 26, 2026

What would you do if you knew you only had a few minutes left to live?

The resurrection doesn't just give us life—it gives us a mission.

1. _____:
This life is temporary; eternity is not.

2 Corinthians 5:10-11

2. _____:
You are sent.

You rarely argue someone into following Jesus.
But you can love them into it.

Matthew 25:37-40

3. _____:
Live on mission daily.

Two questions you should ask every day in prayer.

God, what do they need?

And what do you want me to do?

Questions for Further Study

1. The sermon talked about how clarity increases when time feels short. Why do you think we often lose that sense of urgency in everyday life?
2. How does remembering eternity change the way we view everyday conversations and relationships?
3. The message emphasized that where you are in life is not random. What are some examples of places or relationships where you see that being true?
4. Why do you think people often feel unqualified or hesitant to talk about their faith?
5. The sermon said people are often loved into the Kingdom rather than argued into it. What does that look like in real life?
