Revelation 1:9-20

John identifies himself as a partner in:

Tribulation: _____

Kingdom: _____

Endurance: _____

John sees Jesus, not as the lowly Nazarene. He sees Him in apocalyptic glory.

- _____ (Priest/King)
- _____ (Wisdom)
- _____ (Discernment)
- _____ (Strength/Judgment)
- _____ (Authority)
- _____ (Word of God)
- _____ (Divinity)

Prosecutors may have the keys to prison cells, but Jesus has the keys to death and life. We are secure in Him, no matter what happens to our physical bodies.

Refocus: When we face troubled times, we should look to the Christ we see in Revelation 1 rather than the news headlines.

Trust: If he is in the middle of the lampstands, He is in the middle of your life!

Endure: Like John, be a partner in patient endurance. Why? We know the end of the story. We know that at the end of the story lies VICTORY!
