A Multitude No One Can Count

Revelation 7
God Wins Series
Nate Marsh / July 5, 2026

1. The _____ Shows Us the Heart of God.

   Revelation 7:9-10

2. The _____ Shows Us the Worth of the Lamb.

   Revelation 7:11-12

   The white robes point to cleansing, victory, and righteousness.

   Palm branches in Scripture often represented celebration, victory, and deliverance.

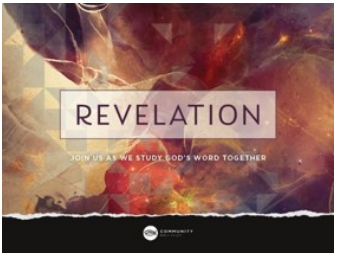
   And the more clearly we see the Lamb, the more freely we worship.

3. The _____ Shows Us the Hope of Heaven.

   Revelation 7:13-17

Interested in studying the book of Revelation more in depth? Community Bible Study will begin a new study in August, and it would be a great opportunity to keep learning and growing.

For more information, you can email Kelly Cassels at kmc@sbcw.com or visit with Pastor Nate.



Questions for Further Study

1. Revelation 7:9 describes “a great multitude that no one could count” from every nation, tribe, people, and language. What does this picture teach us about the heart of God?

2. Nate said, “If they will be represented around the throne one day, they should matter to the church today.” How should this shape the way we see our neighbors, coworkers, city, and world?

3. The white robes show that the people of God have been made clean by the blood of the Lamb. How does this truth bring hope to people carrying guilt, shame, or regret?

4. Revelation 7:17 says God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Which promise in verses 15–17 is most meaningful to you right now, and why?

5. The sermon ends with the question, “Will you be in that multitude?” Why is that the most important question anyone can answer?